Tips to Teach & Show Children the Meaning of Love

Valentine's day is a great time to teach young kids about friendship and building relationships.

1. Express "I love you" in words
2. Spend meaningful time with your children
3. Make something with your child for Valentine's Day
4. Dream with your child
5. Model and teach your child about love, friendship, kindness and inclusion

Teaching your children about BHM

It's never too early to begin teaching children about acceptance and equality. Studying black history month in preschool is a good way to slowly introduce important subjects to young minds.

Parent Handbook Reminder:

Children must arrive to the daycare no later than 9:30 a.m. If children arriving after 9:30 a.m. without prior approval he or she won't be allowed to remain at the daycare center.

Valentine's Day Party

February 14th

Parents, dress you child(ren) in a red shirt for our Valentine's Day party. Don't forget to bring V-Day cards and treats. A list of students name that are in your child's classroom will be on the sign in table.

Mr. Spotlight's Lending Library

Parents, we hope you enjoy our lending library located in our lobby area. Each child can pick a book, take it home to read and return the book when finish. Don't forget to complete the sign in out sheet.

We encourage parents to read to their child 10 minutes each night.
